

10th Annual Brown County Eagle Classic
Saturday, September 10, 2011

The North Harrison Cross Country Team had another solid performance this weekend with 12 runners getting PRs and the other 7 runners having their season's best time at the Brown County Eagle Classic Invitational. The large two division 35 team Invitational had 18 small schools (under 1,000 students) and 17 large schools (over 1,000 students) in attendance that day. The boy's varsity team came in 4th place overall and won the small school division with a score of 43 points and a pack time of 1:18. In the small school division, Johnnie Guy finished in 3rd place (9th overall) and had a PR time of 15:35, Jonathan Reynolds finished in 4th place (14th overall) with a time of 15:47, Josh Guy finished in 7th place (22nd place overall) with a time of 16:11, Ryan Foster finished in 14th place (44th overall) with a time of 16:52, Kyle Chesser finished in 15th place (46th overall) with a time of 16:53, Jason Head finished in 16th place (54th overall) with a PR time of 17:05, and Cody Morgan finished in 58th place with a time of 18:25. The boy's Varsity team mid-season record as of now stands at 73 wins and 6 losses.

The boy's JV team ran in the Freshman/Sophomore Race and scored 271 points and had a pack time of 6:34 finishing in 10th place led by Daniel Fleace coming in 21st place with a PR time of 17:50, Curtis Wetzel coming in 45th place with a PR time of 18:29, Wesley Haub coming in 61st place with a PR time of 19:22, Gary Young coming in 79th place with a PR time of 20:31, and John Fessel coming in 106th place with a PR time of 24:24.

The girl's cross country team had their best performance of the year at the Eagle Classic Invite. In the Varsity Race in the small school division, Ashton Bosler finished in 5th place with a PR time of 20:18 and Natalie Hollensead finished in 19th place with a PR time of 21:50. In the girl's JV race the team scored 332 points and had their best pack time of the season at 1:03 and finished in 11th place. Shelby Lindsey finished in 57th place with a PR time of 23:27, Hayley Elliott finished in 66th place with a PR time of 24:09, Savannah Taylor finished in 68th place with a PR time of 24:20, Abbey Stone finished in 70th place with a season best time of 24:26, and Sydney Taylor finished in 71st place with a season best time of 24:30.

Congratulations to all the Cougar Harriers! Please come support your XC team this Saturday at 9:00 a.m. at the huge Trinity Invitational at Tom Sawyer Park in Louisville, Kentucky with over 50 teams competing from 5 different states. Cougar Pride/Cougar Strong!!